Indian Accent, the multi award-winning restaurant, opens at The Lodhi, New Delhi. Rohit Khattar, Chairman, Old World Hospitality, says, "We have extremely fond memories of The Manor which has been home to Indian Accent for 8 years. Chef Manish Mehrotra and his team are thrilled to begin an exciting new journey with Indian Accent at The Lodhi."

The menu features several new dishes while retaining Indian Accent classics from the early years too. The much larger restaurant at The Lodhi seats over 100 people including three private dining spaces. It shall also feature a 'Chef's Table' in the future where Chef Mehrotra will explore theme-based menus in an adventurous new format.

Indian Accent at The Lodhi has been designed by the Old World Hospitality team. The restaurant has a modern and referential design that is both intimate and minimalist. Indian Accent's signature pearl lustered-plastered walls have been recreated as a continuation from the original location. The restaurant features Amit Pasricha's photographs of Delhi monuments, including a stunning picture of Lodhi Garden that takes center stage in the main dining room.

The three private dining rooms overlook a water body and seat 10, 16 and 30 people respectively. Indian Accent, New Delhi will be open 7 days a week and shall serve lunch 12 noon onwards, early dinner at 7pm and late dinner at 9:45pm.
